- On 2/18/15 1st Sgt. Riddle received a citizen call in reference to a fraudulent credit card. The citizen stated he had been paid with a stolen credit card for work he did in Windsor, VA. Further investigation revealed that the offenses were occurring in Windsor and in Isle of Wight County. IOWSO Investigators were contacted and responded to WPD. It was determined during a joint investigation that the suspect was using local assistance to move stolen merchandise from Virginia to Philadelphia, PA. Investigators used a ruse to bring the local contact to Andersons Storage Center on Windsor Blvd. and made contact with them. Investigators recovered $65,000 in stolen property from a storage unit and located additional scam victims in Dinwiddie County. Total loses are in excess of $200,000 in the fraud scam. Because the offenses cross multiple states lines and involves several foreign national suspects the case was turned over to the FBI.
- On 2/20/15 at approximately 2350 hours Officer Swan responded to a report of a Burglary in progress in the 100 block of Georgie D. Tyler Dr. Upon arrival officers observed the suspect attempting to kick in the door of an apartment. Suspect was ordered to ground and refused to comply. Suspect was taken into custody after a brief struggle and found to be highly intoxicated. Officers determined that the suspect returned to the complex after an earlier domestic dispute and tried to enter his girlfriend's apartment. Suspect was attempting to gain entry to the apartment of an 80 year old elderly female. Suspect was arrested for Attempted Burglary, Destruction of Property, Public Intoxication and Obstruction of Justice.
